Two Minute Mystery

The Case of the Attempted Murder

"Jack Alden's account of the attempted strangling of Mrs. McHenry is pretty farfetched," Inspector Winters told Dr. Haledjian. "Yet he passed a lie detector test.

"Alden drives a delivery truck for Best Cleaners," explained the inspector. "At five minutes before noon Tuesday he drove to the McHenry House and stopped the truck in the driveway.

"He spent about two minutes filling out his delivery reports for the morning. Then he got out with a dress and two suits.

"As he closed the cab door, he noticed his front wheels were parked on the garden hose which ran from an outlet by the garage around to the back of the house. Alden claims he got back into the truck and drove forward a few feet so that his engine was in the McHenry's empty garage.

"Here he noticed the door between the kitchen and the garage was open. He saw Mrs. McHenry lying on the floor by the stove.

"He rushed to her, he says, and was trying to revive her when Mr. McHenry came through the open door of the garage.

"McHenry had taken the day off to water his backyard garden. He had been hosing down his flowerbeds and edges for half an hour when he noticed the truck in his garage. He walked over to investigate.

"We can't get McHenry," concluded the inspector, "to state definitely when he thinks Alden was trying to throttle his wife or revive her."

"No wonder the lie detector test didn't trap Alden!" said Haledjian.

Pulled Pork (serves 8 to 10)

Ingredients:

Brine:

-) 8 ounces or 3/4 cup molasses
-) 12 ounces pickling salt
-) 2 quarts bottled water
-) 6 to 8 pound Boston butt

Rub:

-) 1 teaspoon whole cumin seed
-) 1 teaspoon whole fennel seed
-) 1 teaspoon whole coriander
-) 1 tablespoon chili powder
-) 1 tablespoon onion powder
-) 1 tablespoon paprika

Directions

Combine molasses, pickling salt, and water in 6 quart Lexan bowl. Add Boston butt making sure it is completely submerged in brine, cover, and let sit in refrigerator for a minimum of 8 hours. 12 hours is ideal.

Place cumin seed, fennel seed, and coriander in food grinder and grind fine. Transfer to a small mixing bowl and stir in chili powder, onion powder, and paprika.

Remove Boston butt from brine and pat dry. Sift the rub evenly over the shoulder and then pat onto the meat making sure as much of the rub as possible adheres. More rub will adhere to the meat if you are wearing latex gloves during the application.

Preheat smoker to 210 degrees F. Place butt in smoker and cook for 10 to 12 hours, maintaining a temperature of 210 degrees F. Begin checking meat for doneness after 10 hours of cooking time. Use fork to check for doneness. Meat is done when it falls apart easily when pulling with a fork. Once done, remove from pot and set aside to rest for at least 1 hour. Pull meat apart with 2 forks and serve as sandwich with coleslaw and dressing as desired.
